1 EXHIBIT A

2 NEVADA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

3 Rule 45, Parts (c) and (d), of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure provides as follows:

4 (c) Protection Of Persons Subject To Subpoena

5 (1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a 6 subpoena shall take responsible steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense 7 on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena 8 was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach 9 of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost 10 earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

11 (2)(A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and 12 copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection 13 of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection 14 unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

15 (B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to 16 produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of 17 the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 18 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena
19 written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials 20 or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not 21 be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except 22 pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection 23 has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person 24 commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production.
25 Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or 26 an office of a party from significant expenses resulting from the inspecting and 27 copying commanded.

28 (3)(A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

19 (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
20 (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an office of a party 21 to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, 22 is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that such a person 23 may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place with the 24 state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

25 (B) If a subpoena

26 (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential 27 research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) Duties In Responding To Subpoena

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claims shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.
