As a North Las Vegas resident, I am a stakeholder in seeing education improvement in our city. For the past year, I have been a faculty member of the Southern Nevada Urban Micro Academy (SNUMA) and can attest to the efficacy of a school having small class sizes - fewer than 15 students per class. It works! PTAA plans to model the PTAA School of Nevada after our successes with SNUMA. A school such as that needs to happen here.

Most sincerely,

Dr. K. Johnson
