

Sheila Moulton

Sheila Moulton is a 39-year resident of Las Vegas, Nevada. She received a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Brigham Young University and studied Education classes at UNLV. She served for 12 years as a Trustee on the Board of Clark County School District. She worked for five years as a supervisor and coordinator of Student Teachers from BYU Idaho teaching at CCSD.

Sheila was asked to participate as a member of the committee to develop Mater Academy of Las Vegas and then served for three years as the Board Chair for Mater Academy.

She is a former member of the Nevada State Commission for Library and Literacy and is currently in her 5th year serving as a Board member for the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District.

Sheila and her husband have raised their six children in Las Vegas. All are graduates of CCSD. She currently has 21 grandchildren, 7 in Las Vegas, and the others are in California, New Mexico and Ohio.

Sheila has been a strong advocate of Literacy, Student Achievement, and Family Choice in Education in all her various capacities.