

Victor M. Salcido

Victor was born and raised in the border town of Yuma Arizona. The son of an immigrant family, Victor became a first-generation college graduate by getting dual degrees from the University of San Diego (B.A. in Political Science; B.A. in History) graduating cum laude. After his undergraduate studies, he attend law school at the University of Arizona. While in law school he interned at U.S. District court for the honorable Frank Zapata and then at the Governor's Office for Legal Counsel.

After graduating from law school, he moved to Northern Nevada and has made Reno his home ever since. Since moving to Reno he has clerked for the honorable Brent Adams of the Second Judicial District Court, and served as Deputy Legal Counsel for the Nevada Legislature. He managed and operated an immigration law practice before he left to successfully lead the efforts to open two public charter schools in Reno. He then served as Executive Director for the Charter School Association of Nevada, a state-wide association representing public charter schools. Since 2021 he has served as General Counsel for Community Health Alliance, a non-profit, federally qualified health centers with 6 health centers located in Washoe County as well as a medical mobile unit. Since 2022, he has also served as Director of Government Affairs for Community Health Alliance.

Victor has been a member of the State Bar of Nevada for 13 years. He and his wife Megan have two elementary school aged children.
