

Rosanne Richards

Rosanne Richards currently serves as the Executive Director for Alternative Services with the Clark County School District. Ms. Richards has been with the Clark County School District for 23 years, and always put the needs of students at the forefront of her work. Ms. Richards began teaching at the elementary level and moved to middle school early in her career. Ms. Richards served as a literacy trainer, dean of students, and an administrator in central office. Additionally, working in central office and in the field, Ms. Richards understands the importance of supporting schools at all levels with balanced leadership, a growth mindset, and a dedication to achievement.

After graduating college, Ms. Richards moved to Las Vegas, Nevada from New York. Nevada has been Ms. Richards's home for over thirty years. Ms. Richards spent many years in the hospitality industry before going back to teaching children.

Ms. Richards earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree in English and Accounting, Master of Science in Education, and earned a Master of Arts in Leadership and Educational Administration. Ms. Richards serves as the CCASAPE Central Office/Professional Technical Lead and is the Nevada Central Office Administrators' Association President for Professional Technical and Central Office employees.

Ms. Richards loves living in Nevada with her family. Ms. Richards has a daughter currently attending Boyd Law.