

Dr. Ivet Aldaba is a Mexican American first-generation college graduate who earned her BS in Human Services Counseling with a minor in Communication Studies, an MA in Social Work, and a Doctorate in Public Policy from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Dr. Aldaba has worked in the not-for-profit sector, focusing on Macro and Micro level Social Work. Children and youth are at the center of importance in the work of Dr. Aldaba. She was appointed by the late Governor Kenny Guinn to serve on the Juvenile Justice Commission and was a member of the grant committee.

Dr. Aldaba is a faculty member serving as a lecturer and as the MSW Graduate program and admissions coordinator with the UNLV Greenspun College of Urban Affairs School of Social Work. She is a licensed social worker in Nevada and a clinical social work intern at Red Rock Psychological Health, specializing in trauma-informed care.