

Tamika Shauntee Rosales

Tamika Shauntee Rosales is a native Nevadan. She was born and raised in Las Vegas and received her Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice and her Master's degree in Judicial Management from the University of Nevada, Reno. She has worked with many well-known law firms in the state of Nevada including McDonald Carano Wilson and Beckley Singleton, Chtd.

Tamika is a current Executive Committee Member for the Local Las Vegas Branch of the NAACP Chapter 1111. She has always been a huge advocate for diversity, equality and inclusion and always wants to assist under served populations.

Tamika resided in France when she was younger and speaks fluent French. She enjoys traveling and learning about new cultures and educating her son about the wonderful world around him.