Re: Copy of Complaint submitted to SPCSA regarding Do & Be Arts Academy concerning child

Dear Mr. Alhulaibi:

The SPCSA has reviewed your request for a copy of the complaint submitted by your child's other parent. SPCSA has determined that disclosure of the requested complaint implicates a nontrivial personal privacy interest. Accordingly, we are withholding the complaint to protect the privacy and safety of your child and the parent who submitted it.

Given the ongoing custody proceedings, the judge presiding over your family law matter is best positioned to consider the request in the context of those proceedings and determine any protections necessary for disclosure. SPCSA will not release the complaint without an order from that judge requiring its disclosure. If you obtain such an order, please provide a complete copy so SPCSA can respond in accordance with its terms. Please provide SPCSA notice of any legal process filed regarding your request.

SPCSA's determination relies on the personal-privacy protections recognized in Clark County School District v. Las Vegas Review-Journal, 134 Nev. 700, 707–09 (2018).

Respectfully,

Samantha King Powell, Esq.
General Counsel for and on behalf of The Nevada State Public Charter School Authority
